Death of Dr. Turpin-A Pastor Called-To Give a Banquet Funeral of Mrs Crostie-Examinations for Teachers.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES. 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

The work of electrifying the portion of the old Manchester line on Cary and Ninth streets is now in progress. The Richmond Railway and Electric Company will in a few days be giving transfers at Seventh and Main streets for Manchester. Passengers can then secure transfers at Ninth and Main, Seventh and Main, Seventh and Franklin, Seventh and Broad, Seventh and Clay, besides numerous other points in the centre of the Ere long a regular ten minute schedule will be adopted on the Manchester line, and this will probably be changed to a five minute schedule. A large number of new cars are being built, and will be running in the course of a month or two.

It is more than likely that the company which contemplates building an electric line to Petersburg will erect a bridge across James rives to enter Rich-mond at Seventh street, should the bridge commissioners refuse them the privilege of crossing the Free bridge. Operations will be begun as aoon as the city council of Manchester grants them the franchise recently asked for.

The remains of Dr. Thomas Turpin, who died at his residence on Hainbridge street Saturday evening last, were taken to Powhatan for interment yesterday.

Deceased for years practicel medicine in Powhatan county, but came here a year or two ago and located in Swansbore. From there he removed to this city. He had been in feeble health for some time prior to his death. He marsome time prior to his death. He mar-ried a sister of Mr. Augustine Royall, of this city, and was a brother of Mrs. John H. Hatcher, of Manchester. Deceased was well known in this city, where a wide circle of friends will regret his death,

Rev. W. H. Trainham preached to large congregations at Cowardin-avenue Christian church Sunday.

At a largely-attended meeting of the members of the church after morning service, he was unanimously called to the pastorate of the church, and the followcommittee was appointed to arrange for a public welcome to him: W. Porter, E. B. Brown, Moses Fergus Mrs. D. A. Snellings and Miss Mary Bo-

Chief of Police Lipscomb and Officer Moles arrested ten negro youths Sunday afterneon for engaging in a social game of creps. Yesterday morning they were fined il each at the mayor's court.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Arrington, of this city, have the sympathy of their many friends in the sad death of their little daughter, Mary Carter, who died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock.

The funeral took place yesterday morning from the residence, on Cowardin avenue, and the remains were taken to Petersburg for interment.

Manchester Ledge, No. 11, A. F. and A. M., will give a banquet Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple to all who participated in their series of entertainments last December. A most delightful occasion is anticipated.

The funeral of Mr. Charles D. Jackson, who died Saturday night at his residence in Chesterfield, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence. Deceased was sixty-one years of age, and was well known in the nty.

The war secretaryship was divided out among a number of coppers from the three police stations. They handle the petty warfares on lower Franklin, Fifteenth, and around Butchertown with a skill which is truly wonderful.

The agricultural portfolio is very satis-factorily filled by 'Squire Sugar Bottom Jones, as evidenced by the number of unique botanical specimens that he wears on the lapel of his cost.

His Honer himself loes the attorney-general act, while Robert Kerse continues to prove himself a "bang-up" secretary of the interior.

The mid-Lenten docket was a good one. The mid-Lenten docket was a good one. Without doubt there were never more game eyes at the sanctum before. It really looked as if a large proportion of the pugilistic class had gotten on the warpath and proceeded to "do up" each other much as the Chinaman his shirts. Gypsy Camp was the scene of several red hot battles, one or two of the markets served as a first-rate stamping, ground red hot battles, one or two of the markets served as a first-rate stamping ground for disorderly characters, and a highly interesting case, in which four talkable specimens of femininity took active part, served to vary the monotony of drunks, juvenile fights and other unimportant matters.

Eilen Beasley entered the sanctum on a charge of secreting Biddy Mahoney, a sixteen-year-old white girl, for no good purpose. There were four or five witnesses in the case. Johanno Mahony swore the charge was correct. W. A. Shields substantiated the statement, as did also J. J. Walton and P. Dalton, whereupon Ellen Beasley declared it was all a lie. Then followed a general and purely contradictory conversation, in all a lie. Then followed a general and purely contradictory conversation, in which everybody talked, nobody listened, and His Honor repeatedly sang out "Will you please close your features?" You can easily imagine how much "chin music" was indulged in when there were four women in the case, and some of of them Irishmen-beg parden-"Irish women" I meant to say. Finally the vowomen' I meant to say. Finally the vo-cabulary of two languages was exhausted, the Justice and the Mahony women held a private interview on a moral subject, and after much discussion on the part of everybody connected with the case, the latter was dismissed amid loud applause, from the audience.

Gypsy Camp presented a lively scene when John Morgan and Albert Morgan decided to chastise Waverly West most thoroughly. When Waverly appeared in court there was little doubt that in the fracas he saw the entire solar system, stars, planets, constellations and all, for his features hore the marks of rough usage. Both eyes were black, and a number of bruises and facial wounds almost rendered it a question of conjecture as to his identity. He was, in familiar parlance, "beat up," and that most severely. NICHOLAS AND HOUSEMANN The Two Men Were Before the Henrico County Court. The March term of the Henrico County Court opened yesterday morning, Judge E. C. Minor presiding. The first case on the docket was the Commonwealth against Philip N. Nicholas, charged with the murder of Judson Wilkinson and James Mills. The prisoner was led to the bar in custody of Sheriff Soloman, looking very pale and haggard, his cleanly shaven face showing all the emotions of one in deep supreprise and experience. ly shaven face showing all the emotions of one in deep suspense and anxiety. When the charge was being read by the clerk. Nicholas tried hard to compose himself, but the quivering of his lips and his restless attitude were too perceptible to the audience, which plainly indicated that he was undergoing a severe strain. Mr. Richardson, in behalf of the prisoner, moved that the case be certified to the circuit court for trial. The Judgeruled that it was necessay for the prisoner to be arraigned before he could exercise his right of election.

SPRING NEEDS.

IN CONSIDERING YOUR WANTS DO NOT FORGET THIS.

If You Do You Will Make a Serious Mistake at This Season.

Something of Deep and Peculiar Interest Just Now.

There are many needs during the spring months, but none more necessary or ur-gent than the use of a spring medicine. The blood requires it, and the nerves, liver, kidneys, and bowels must have it if you desire to keep strong and vigorous and maintain your good health. Those who are weak, tired and nervous must take it, and those who do not feel just right should do so, or serious ill health may follow.
